

Nature Play and First Nations Perspectives in Early Childhood Professional Development Gathering at CERES!

Would you like to learn how to incorporate Nature Play and a love of learning outdoors into your early learning program?

Would you like to build your knowledge about First Nations culture through experiential learning?

Would you like to connect with a like-minded community of educators/teachers and experts and spend some time in Nature on Wurundjeri country?

If so, come along to this special gathering Moreland City Council and CERES have created to learn this and more!

What to expect on the day?

- Welcome to Country
- Practical workshops: Indigenous perspectives and Nature Play
- Learn from a panel of experts
- Network with other educators and teachers from your area and exchange ideas.
- Morning tea and lunch provided
